Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published guidance on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.

The organisation carries out regular consultation with people s upported and their families. The service is modified as a result of such consultation and continuously develops its person centred focus. Individuals are empowered to have their voices heard through these monthly consultations. They are given the opport unity to say what works well and what does not and to speak about how they would like their support to look and what they need themselves and ASC-Cymru to do to support them to meet their goals.

Staffing levels have now improved providing adequate support f or those that we support offering more choice.

Positive feedback has been received from the Complex Care a nd Commissioning Team from their visit on 7th October 2022 c ongratulating the team in the change in the person supported a nd the range of activities they are now accessing.

Individuals feel able to discuss with staff any concerns that they have either with their support or their communication needs. Th is is done verbally as well as in writing.

□ Individuals are included when their care and support plans ar e being out together through a series of meetings.

Support needs are recorded on calendars or Trello and daily lo gs. Individuals plan these with staff support.

Any concern or complaint is taken seriously and actioned. Outcomes are then recorded and shared with the individual that rais ed it.

Additional support can be made available should an individual r equire advocacy and staff have details of advocate services th at could assist if required.

The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.

Individuals inform staff of any health appointments and staff su pport when required to arrange, liaise or support to and from th ese appointments.

ASC-Cymru keeps the district nurse files in the building for whe n they attend and keeps record of what has been done, needs to be done and when by.

Staff work with families regarding appointments they have made on behalf of their family member we support to ensure needs are met.

Individuals feel safe and are able to make staff aware of how th ey are feeling and works well with them to assess if PRN medica tion is required.

Staff have available and make use of relevant PPE and safe pr actice procedures and support individuals to actively follow thes e also when required.

Staff support individuals to attend university as well as required placements and volunteering activities of their choice to suppor t them to meet their goals.

Staff complete risk assessments to ensure the safety of individu als as and when required for new activities.

Staff support individuals to maintain a clean and tidy home whe n consent has been given and advising why these need to be d one to meet health and safety requirements for themselves as well as for others.

Staff has supported to liaise with internet companies to get inter net installed in their homes so that they are able to do things they would like online such as study.

Individuals have monthly consultations to ensure that we meet their health, development and wellbeing needs.

Health and safety checks are completed daily/weekly and audit s completed.

Medication information leaflets are accessible in easy read form at

Medication is stored appropriately in a locked cabinet and temp erature checks are done daily to ensure it is stored in the corre ct conditions.

Process for PRN medication is set out in the medication file should they be required.

The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.

There is in place safeguarding measures and policy to ensure i ndividuals are kept safe. Individuals are aware of these and can access them on request from staff.

All staff undergo safeguarding training to know how to report an d when to use minimal levels of intervention before things progress.

All staff read and sign the safeguarding policy to show understanding of what to do if there is a safeguarding concern and managers know when to escalate.

Staff are aware that safeguarding information can be found on the intranet and how to locate it.

There is appropriate staffing levels to ensure individuals are ke pt safe.

Individuals support, health and safety are discussed in team me etings.

Individuals communicate well with staff any concerns they have as they arise and these are also picked up during monthly consultations.

Risk assessments are completed with the individuals.

Documentation can be made available in easy read if required. Family members are also able to receive copies should they be required of safeguarding policies.

Families feel comfortable to raise concerns with staff and work with them to ensure safety.
