Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published guidance on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.

Bronafallen carries out 3 monthly Key Worker reviews which involves discussing care and support with the individuals. 6 monthly quality questionnaires are conducted which gives the individuals and their families a chance for their voices to be heard. The se are in addition to the usual review and concentrates mainly on the well being of the individual and how we can assist them to have a better quality of life.

The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.

Personal Plans at Bronafallen are out come focussed and read in a way that identifies the individuals strengths and what they a re able to do independently. Any areas that individuals need as sistance with are detailed in an "actions section" so we are not concentrating on the individuals weaknesses.

The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.

Bronafallen has a rigorous recruitment policy which ensures sta ff employed are suitable to work with vulnerable adults. The staff are trained in whistle blowing and vulnerable adults training, during staff meeting and in supervision, whistle blowing is discu ssed and all staff understand their responsibility's in this area. On the my 2 monthly Regulation 72 visit I spend time with the re sidents and assess how comfortable, safe and secure they feel. In addition the manager carries out 2 monthly residents meeting and one of the set questions asked is how safe and comfortable the individual feels. Bronafallen regularly reviews its internal and external safety procedures internal and external locks are checked on a daily basis. The care that the individuals receive is additionally documented on an allocation sheet which helps the care workers to ensure all required assistance has been completed

The extent to which people live in accommodation that best supports their wellbeing and achievement of their personal outcomes.

Bronafallen prides its self on offering a high quality professional dementia care service. We aim to create a warm friendly andha ppy homely environment where individuality and diversity is cel ebrated and emphasised and where our residents choices and beliefs are respected. We are committed and passionate about enriching the lives of those with dementia by delivering genuine person centred care in order to create a loving and stimulating place to live not just exist. We are constantly striving to improve and enhance our home in order to provide appropriate and meaningful daily experiences to all our service users staff and visitors. Everything we do is driven by the wishes and feelings or our residents
