Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published guidance on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.

One to one meeting with residents which include decisions arou nd the food provided, care & preferred activities, some resident s will ask if they can go shopping into the community we will arr ange these trips for them with our activity's coordinator.

The home manager will sit with new residents on admission and gain as much information as possible regarding their needs, wis hes & preferences. All residents complete a 'This is Me' docum ent on the day of admission, which information used to develop care management plans.

Relatives & Resident's meetings - all care needs discussed, list ening to their views & acting upon them.

Advocacy services contacted for those who are unable to make their own decisions, this is to ensure everything we do is in the person's best interest.

We treat everyone as an individual and aim to provide their car e in a person-centred way.

Our residents engage in decisions about the environment they live.

Residents choices are respected & every person is treated with dignity & respect during direct & indirect care interactions. We aim to provide a range of activities to suit each individual n eeds from cooking, sewing, crosswords, shopping in town, day t rips, listening to music, watching videos, keep fit & much more. We ask our residents what they used to like doing when at hom e & aim to support them to continue with these hobbies & activit ies.

The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.

Where falls risks have been identified, this has been incorporat ed into the mobility care plan, highlighting how risks can be red uced. Where indicated a falls diary is in place & completed mon thly or when required.

Senior staff or management will make referrals to physio or occ upational therapy for those residents with mobility issues. Residents who have significant weight loss will be referred to G P and or dietician.

Senior care staff will contact the residents GP if they are feeling unwell, family members are kept informed of any health issues with they may have or any changes in their medication. District nurses visit daily for those residents who may require n ursing intervention.

Home manager/deputy manager consults with CPN's, social wor kers, doctors, regarding health issues of our residents. Staff will ensure that new and existing residents have regular ey e check-ups, we have eye care matters who comes to the home on a regular basis.

Senior staff will ensure dentist appointments are made for any resident who wishes to see the dentist.

The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.

All staff complete safeguarding training before starting in their r ole.

Application for DoLs is completed by the home manager for tho se residents who lack capacity & are unable to make their own decisions. Family members are consulted of when a DoLs application is to be made.

All staff members understand the whistle-blowing policy & how to report bad practice.

Equality & Diversity training is done by all staff which covers all aspects of discrimination.

HM monitors staffing levels to ensure we recruit enough staff to provide care & support to all our residents.

DBS checks are completed with all staff & references obtained before starting work.

HM ensures all essential equipment is in place for those reside nts with moving & handling requirements.

All staff members are aware of Select Healthcare policies & procedures regarding safeguarding & protecting residents from ha rm & abuse.

All allegations are dealt with in a timely manner & appropriate a ction taken & recorded.

The extent to which people live in accommodation that best supports their wellbeing and achievement of their personal outcomes.

Broughton Hall has 1 activity coordinator who collaborates clos ely with residents, networks within the local community & talks t o each person to ensure a full & varied programme of group & i ndividual activities. They coordinate a range of activities in & ou t of the home. The programme is devised following discussion w ith the individuals & their relatives. Individuals are actively enco uraged to maintain links with the community & continue interest s they followed prior to coming into the home. We will collaborat e with our residents & their families to identify activities that will be enjoyed by all.

Majority of our residents love to see animals around the home, so we welcome family members and their pets to visit. Residents are encouraged to personalise their bedrooms & are encouraged to bring in any personal items from home All our staff are trained on how to maintain confidentiality, priva cy & dignity always.
