Statement of Compliance

Staff Type

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published guidance on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.	Resident Meetings with staff, advocate visits, Personal Activity Plans as part of the resident care plan.
The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.	Activity Plans & care plans bespoke for each resident which ca ptures positive well being and development and health outcome s.
The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.	Qualified well trained staff and management in place, CCTV to external perimeter of property. Secure Environment access control on front doors of care hom e this provides a safe environment as support know who is comi ng and going at all times. Also use Person Centred Software wh ich documents all care provided in real time on tablets to assist in oversight go the service.
The extent to which people live in accommodation that best supports their wellbeing and achievement of their personal outcomes.	Property is good condition and property is fit for purpose has b een a big investment in the premises over the last few years, w hich best supports their wellbeing and achievement of personal outcomes.
