Statement of Compliance

Г

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published guidance on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.	Residents and families are invited to take part in their care plan ning process by the Clinicial Lead & Home Manager wherever p ossible and applicable. Care Plan reviews will reflect any chang es to a residents care, especially if they or their family have exp ressed a desire for change that the service believes is safe and in the best interest of the resident. Residents and families can s hare directly with the RI or management of the home, or alterna tively complete anonymous online surveys.
The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.	Residents have expressed pleasure at being at Panteg Nursing Home in discussions with the RI through the year. They are als o thankful for the staff and managers at Panteg for providing th em with support and care both physically and mentally.
The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.	Residents are safe and protected from abuse through careful a nd vigilant oversight by various levels of staff seniority. There is a reporting structure through which residents, families, employe es or others can raise a concern about any perceived concern of abuse or neglect. Residents feel safe at Panteg Nursing Hom e thanks to the focus of the staff and managers on their well bei ng.
The extent to which people live in accommodation that best supports their wellbeing and achievement of their personal outcomes.	Residents feel comfortable in their rooms, the communal areas and in the outside areas. They can meet or chat to other reside nts and staff anywhere in the facility. They are offered activities throughout the day to allow them to participate along with other residents and staff. They are also allowed to maintain their dign ity, privacy and independence with the support of carers.
