Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published $\underline{\text{guidance}}$ on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.	Individual Care Plans and Night Plans - relatives and residents i nvolved. Staff turnover low so all staff know the residents - all reported o n changeover of shift. Also summary of needs prepared on all r esidents. Me and myself and Life story prepared. Residents meetings.
The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.	We are assigned a local GP - reviews undertaken every Wedne sday and also called when needed. Mental Health Team support when needed. District Nurses come into the Care Home daily - for wound care and insulin. Social Worker reviews. Inspections from CIW and Bridgend County Council.
The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.	DOLS in situ. POVA - reported when needed. Accident / Incident Reports Whistleblowing Policy. Risk assessments.
The extent to which people live in accommodation that best supports their wellbeing and achievement of their personal outcomes.	All care planning highlights personal outcomes and these are r eviewed every 3 months or when circumstances change. Providing a calm, homely atmosphere with stimulation - i.e. activities.
