Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published guidance on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.	To support choices and decisions ensuring each resident gets t he right help and support which enables them to make choices and make their decisions about their care and support where c apacity allows having their voices heard. Each resident has a n amed nurse and 1-1 sessions with them. We have regular medication reviews by their care teams/consul tants. Residents satisfaction questionnaires for continuous improvem ents as well as residents meetings. A variety of activities offered on a daily basis and support daily I iving needs. Promoting involvement with families including home visits.
The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.	To encourage an atmosphere of care, kindness and support w hich enables residents to live a full, interesting and independen t lifestyle with rules and regulations to be meaningful and under standable being kept to a minimum. To provide the highest standards of care24/7 by skilled staff an d keeping agency staff to a minimum. Treat each resident with dignity and respect for them to be hap py and supported to maintain their wellbeing.
The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.	For each resident to feel safe and protected from abuse and n eglect in the home and community. All staff are trained and are aware of their individual responsibili ties to prevent, identify and report abuse and are responsible to safeguarding the residents. Ensuring that policies and procedures are in place to safeguar d our residents from any form of abuse, and these are maintain ed and audited on a regular basis for compliance and effective ness.
The extent to which people live in accommodation that best supports their wellbeing and achievement of their personal outcomes.	N/A
