Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published guidance on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.	Morning meeting is held every day and attendance is encourag ed. During this meeting, residents have an opportunity to reque st activities that are not on their planner, and they can raise an y concerns. Management attend this meeting in order to allow t he residents to book time with them during the day if required. Every resident is involved in devising a person centred weekly planner, which is supported by their care team and activity co-o rdinator.
	Resident meetings are conducted monthly and each resident is actively encouraged to participate their wants, needs and conc erns. The meeting is documented in an easy read format and pl aced in resident areas.
	Three monthly Progress Review Meetings take place with exter nal teams, to review plans in place, progress, outcomes, and g oals for the future. Residents are at the forefront of these meetings. Externals are being encouraged to attend in person to visit the service.
	Monthly Progress reviews have been implemented for the resid ents. A review promotes a discussion with the team at Glyn Rho syn and the resident about support plans, goals, 1-1 sessions held, the residents worries and ideas they wish to share to impr ove their experience at Glyn Rhosyn.
	Residents are involved in the selection and appointment of new staff, participating in the interview process. They provide feedb ack about the individual being interviewed, the interaction and t he answers to any questions they had prepared.
	New activities, experiences, and work experience provide oppor tunities for residents to engage in a range of activities that sup port their overall well-being. Using SMART, we link the resident s own personal goal and targets with their plan.
	People have access to support from an independent Advocacy organisation, 'North Wales Advice and Advocacy Association. A dvocates will meet on an individual basis and be involved in reg ular reviews if people request their support.
	The Complaints Procedure is made available in a range of acce ssible formats. Relevant telephone numbers and addresses are available and are easily accessible within the home.
	Residents provide feedback through regular forums, review me etings as well as feedback surveys. Residents access the com munity on a daily basis and regular visits to friends and family a re supported.

The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.	We have established links with the Holywell Community Hospita which residents access for a variety of reasons; Dentist, Psychi atry, Blood Tests, Minor Injuries. Residents also access Age Co ncern or Absolute Footcare for chiropody.
	We regularly meet with resident's social worker/care coordinate rs to review the individual's needs including any health needs.
	Weekly Wellman checks are completed for all residents, which ecord their vital observations. Staff monitor for any significant of hanges or concerns and action as appropriate. Residents who reside on the Nursing service have their MUST completed mon hly by Nursing Staff.
	Some residents have Epilepsy support plans in place. Residen s with epilepsy and have experienced seizure activity will have egular review via the Walton Centre and Nursing Staff are in ca ntact for professional guidance, should presentation or suppor needs change.
	Residents have access to the Annual Health Check. There are also Health Action Plans in place to ensure the ongoing suppo and monitoring of Physical Health needs.
	The Resident Survey results 2022 headed some positive results. Residents felt listened to and stated that staff are polite and riendly. The residents overall felt that they were able to talk to he staff if they felt upset or worried.
	Education Group takes place to raise awareness and develop he residents skills in supporting their own physical and mental wellbeing.
	Residents take part in Shop and Cook. This is promoting the p rson's independence, helping with money recognition, teachin new skills with regards to budgeting and the cost of living and elping to have more knowledge and insight of healthy living, in uding preparing and cooking more independently.
	The Cook consults with residents for Menu planning, to gather eedback about their choices and preferences whilst ensuring r utrition and diet needs are met. The Villa's plan a weekly menu with flexibility for individuals preparing their own food, the indiv duals regularly go shopping go collect their items required for he week. This supports the development of independence skil
	<ul> <li>New activities, experiences, and work experience provide opportunities for people to engage in a range of activities that support their overall well-being.</li> </ul>

The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.	We have monthly PCP meetings where residents are able to d cuss any issues or thoughts they have. The Registered Manag er regularly meets and speak with residents. Residents are en ouraged to raise a Concern or Complaint where they are not s tisfied with the service they receive.
	Residents may be subject to Deprivation of Liberty Safeguards Residents are also subject to other legal frameworks; Conditio al Discharge, Licence. Easy reads have been developed for th e residents and what this means for staff.
	The residents are supported by staff 24 hours a day, which comprises of support workers, nurses, and team leaders. There re regular agency used within the service whilst the service reuits new staff.
	Policies are in place, and these are reviewed, updated, and result to staff to ensure they are aware of all updates regarding Health & Safety, Whistleblowing, Safeguarding, etc. All staff eceive training in Safeguarding.
	People living in the service have access to Advocacy Services and can call upon these services whenever they choose.
	Glyn Rhosyn have a Speak Up Guardian, and Responsible Invidual who's contact details can be found on display in service or both residents and staff use.
	MHC have a robust recruitment process that ensures all new of mployees are vetted appropriately prior to commencing employ ment with us. These background checks consist of two written mployment references and an application is made to the Discl sing and Barring Service to ensure all employees are conside d safe to work in the care sector.
	All residents are familiar with the RI who visits the home on a r gular basis and have the contact details of this person and kr w that she would be available to access at any time, should th y require her support.
	Staff are aware and encouraged to speak openly and honestl about any concerns they have. In addition, staff supervisions ovide another more formal opportunity to discuss concerns. D ring staff meetings, Safeguarding and lessons learnt are also scussed.
The extent to which people live in accommodation that best supports their wellbeing and achievement of their personal outcomes.	Glyn Rhosyn is located on the edge of the community which is upportive of active community participation. The local area pre- ides access to public transport links, shops, banking, walking, ultural or places of worship, and other amenities. The residen are often in the community supporting the area with the activit s of preference. There are good links with the local community
	Residents attend a morning meeting to plan their day and sta what they would like to do/where they would like to go for the y, as well as being offered the opportunity to raise any concer s.
	Residents have outcome setting within their personal plans, the se are regularly monitored, reviewed and updated. We celebre achievements with individuals, friends, family and their professional teams.
	There are facilities available at the service, which residents re ularly access to develop their independence skills; ADL kitche Activities Hub, Computer and Gardening Skills.
	All individuals have a pre-admission assessment, reviewing th r existing personal plans and identified needs. This ensures th t Glyn Rhosyn can provide a placement in accordance with per ple's needs, wishes and in-keeping with their outcomes.
	The Nursing service is provided over ground-floor accommod on. It has communal spaces, as well as access to the 'Activity ub'. This area of the building provides a locked door with a loc ed garden. The Villa houses both have stairs to access bedro m accommodation. The houses each have their own garden a d a shared front garden.
	Each individual has regular reviews with their social worker, w ch includes a review of the placement and it's suitability to me
