Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published guidance on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and oppo	ortunities are made available to them.

Residents feel that they are able to voice their opinions. They t ell me what they like / do not like. The care plans are agreed wit h them. They can choose when to get up or when to go to bed.

The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.	All Residents let me know that they are happy at Park Lodge. When they are unwell the Home accesses the services of GP, District Nurses, ANPs. Dietitian, Physiotherapist and Occupational Therapists.
The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.	There has not been any safeguarding issues at the Home over the last year. All concerns are dealt with to their satisfaction.
The extent to which people live in accommodation that best supports their wellbeing and achievement of their personal outcomes.	The Residents choose their rooms and decorate them as they wish. They can bring small items of furniture / pictures that are precious to them. They have access to all facilities of the Home and are supported in achieving everything they want to.
