Training and Workforce Planning

Describe the arrangements in place during the last financial year for identifying, planning and meeting the training needs of staff employed by the service provider	Padda has invested heavily into the training function over the course of 22/23. Padda now has in place a devoted in house trainer who trains all mandatory face to face training as well as established digital training partners. Padda ensures that its training extends beyond the classroom and is monitored for effectiveness in the workplace through the use of regular spot checks. Care staff are observed in the real workplace to ensure knowledge gained through training is implemented in real life.
Describe the arrangements in place during the last financial year for the recruitment and retention of staff employed by the service provider	Padda employs robust recruitment methods including interviews, s hadow shifts and assessments to ensure the right people are recruited. All necessary background checks are carried out including DBS and references checks to ensure the safety of residents. Tur nover within Padda is small due to the collaborative approach Pad da employs to ensure staff feel valued including regular staff meet ings. visibility of Management and employee surveys.

Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published guidance on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.

Treforys does its best to ensure that residents have a say in their care, albeit the needs of residents has increased greatly since the last QOC review d ue to more residents requiring nursing care than before.

Key points are:

- The Ri's observed breakfast being served by the Kitchen Asst on several mornings and the
- residents were always asked what they wanted (even if they could at times not respond)
- · Family forums take place quarterly.
- All care plans inspected by the RI (3 on Care docs system) contained evidence of personalized information being recorded regarding the resident and their care plan (i.e.

preferences etc.) including one page profiles to assist staff and summarize the residents wishes.

- The RM was observed calling families during the residents car e plan review and asking about whether they felt change was needed to their loved ones care p
- Ian.The food menu has been changed to be more visual thereby allowing residents to choose
- more easily.
 The RM has introduced a spot check system whereby he obs erves individual carers interactions with residents, one of the things he looks for is offering choice to a resident

The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.

Residents appear happy in Treforys with no examples of unhap piness or ill health related to neglect detected.

Key points are:

• Group activities posted on the homes Family Whatsapp group show residents engaged and happy in those moments (i.e. dancing or doing tasks)

- The home can evidence regular visits from supporting profess ionals such as chropodists, hair dressers and dentists.
- Doll therapy has been introduced since the last QOC visit with several residents observed enjoying and engaging with the dolls.
- The Alzheimer's society has been engaged to deliver training to all staff to increase their knowledge of caring for those with dementia.

The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.

Residents of Treforys care home are kept safe by the home. Evidence for this includes:

- The home maintains continues to maintain robust documentation with on the building and
- related risks (i.e. fire risk assessment, legionella risk assessment, electrics, servicing etc.)
- Safeguarding incident are recorded on a weekly tracker and i nspected by the RI.
- · SOVA training for all staff inspected was up to date.
- A new role of H&S Officer has been created to assist the RM with managing safety within the
- A system for monitoring falls, safeguarding and meds errors is in operation within the home (trackers).
- Safeguarding and whistleblowing are part of the staff induction for all new starters.
- The RM does random night drop ins to ensure the quality of c are remains high after dark.

The extent to which people live in accommodation that best supports their wellbeing and achievement of their personal outcomes.

Treforys care home is an environment were people can maintai n their wellbeing, be it privately in their ensuite rooms or in one of the communal room

• The home maintains continues to maintain robust documentati on with on the building and related risks (i.e. fire risk assessment, legionella risk assessme nt, electrics, servicing etc.)

- Extra communal rooms have been added since the last QOC r eport in addition to a new outdoor area.
- There is ample space for communal mixing but also private tim e for residents.
- · Residents bedrooms were all personalized with none looking t he same. Six residents bedrooms were visited and it was clear that Management allow as much personalization as it possible to residents bedrooms.

• The RM has established links with local schools to allow for int ergenerational interactions
