Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published guidance on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.

At Home Instead pride ourselves in ensuring all clients have a say in the service they receive, We do this by incorporating the following into our care Personal plans and care services support :

- Initial Assessments
- Individuality brief
- Risk Assessments
- Personal Preferences
- Client Support
- Welsh Language Active Offer
- Quality Assurance
- PEAQ - Pursuing Excellence By Achieving Quality
- Home Instead Quality Assurance

Responsible Individual Quarterly Audit including direct reviews with service users.

Home Instead services are often commissioned directly through direct contact or a self managed basis rather than through a referral managed by Local authority adult social services, as such the company offer a more diverse selection of support within a inclusive tailored package of care to meet the individuals need, care call lengths are a standard 1 hour or longer and support with home help, house keeping, shopping, companionship and engagement are written into the care package just as extensively as support for Personal care and medication support is written and detailed into the personal plan. To support families and clients we offer support on financial assistance and guidance in funding packages of care, this support includes advice on direct payments and attendance allowance.

In the first year of service Clients receive: -

Day 1 – Service review telephone call

2weeks - Quality assurance visit

6 weeks- Service review quality check

3 months – Service review quality check

6 months – Service Review

9 months – Service review quality check

12 months - Service Review and a quality assurance telephone call.

Actions which are highlighted are actioned without delay to ensure a flexible quality service is experienced by all.

The Responsible individual carries out a documented audit of new client personal plans, Care professionals personnel files and other aspects of the business every 3 months alongside this they also visit several clients every 3 months to complete service reviews and ensure direct feedback is received to the management.

An annual client survey is carried out independently. (PEAQ)

Home Instead welcomes all comments, concerns, complaints and compliments. We take all of the above seriously and use the information to continuously improve our practices. Home Instead have had a very positive year in relation to implementing and embedding improvements for Care professionals.

The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.

Home Instead supports individuals inclusive tailored care service by incorporating personal care, home help and companionship ensuring the service covers the needs of the individual and also what the individual wants- the personal things that make their care specific for them by seeing clients as individuals with personal preferences.

We meet this by completing the following:-

- Relationship Based Approach to care
- Personal Care
- Home Help
- Companionship
- Digital Champions
- Wellbeing through the Pandemic
- Video Calling
- Activities
- Care professionals and Office Staff Training
- Dementia Awareness Training

Relationship Based Approach to care

We do this by knowing the individuals we support and building relationships to know what matters to them. Having a good working relationship enables clients to be open about their care provision they talk openly about any positives or negatives they feel about the care provided. The openness enables families to talk about the Care professionals as an extension of their family this could be seen as a negative by some but we only see the positive in providing the exceptional care we strive to achieve, having a professional but caring relationship opens avenues to work on personal goals in a way that barriers would not achieve.

Communication

Regular Newsletters to Care professionals and Clients/Families, guidance PowerPoints were created for Care professionals/ clients to keep themselves well and safe whilst providing/ being supported with care. The guidance covered topics such as PPE safe disposal

Clients matched to Care Professionals

Home Instead training system that enables all employees to gain knowledge and develop confidence to use their skills and so supporting them to deliver exceptional relationship led quality care to our clients.

Home Instead have developed a unique training programme for our Care professionals which is accredited by City & Guilds and specialised for the home environment. Developed by leading experts in ageing, Dementia, Parkinson's, and end of life care .

Clients and Care professional Wellbeing What's on Where guides

We have created regional leaflets to advise older adults of groups, activities and events to stay engaged, and prevent loneliness.

The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.

Home Instead is committed to ensuring that clients are safe from harm and are cared for to the highest standard in the safety of their own home. Home Instead does this by ensuring the welfare of the client is always paramount and all clients without exception have the right to protection from abuse regardless of gender, ethnicity, disability, sexuality, marital status, gender reassignment etc.

Clients and their families are informed of our policy and procedures during the initial visit and at other times when appropriate and certainly upon request. Home Instead Safeguarding policy is always available to anyone with an interest in our services.

Any concerns or allegations of abuse are taken seriously and responded to appropriately in a professional caring and transparent way for the individual and or their family to know the investigation details and what steps are being taken to ensure the safety of the individual during the investigation process, cooperating with any external body.

Care professionals have training on safeguarding and are encouraged to download the SCW safeguarding APP

Home Instead has a commitment to safe recruitment, selection and vetting. Home Instead will ensure that all employees undertaking regulated activity are subject to a DBS Check and a check against the adults barred list along with registration through Social Care Wales which is also checked. We also require a minimum of 4 references.

Service Reviews and Risk Assessments

Home Instead keep their Care professionals and Clients safe by completing regular reviews and risk assessment of the property including any equipment or aids used. Home Instead also keep clients safe in all aspects including their health by auditing the daily activity log recordings. The electronic medication recording system sends a reminder 10 minutes before the end of the visit to the Care professionals phone and the office team if the medication hasn't been recorded by then this is to prevent any missed medication.

Family online digital client portal

Home Instead has an portal for clients and their families to access through a password protected link, the portal lets clients and their families have access to the daily activity logs, medication records, personal plans and policies, statement of purpose and data protection promise.

This keeps the families up to date with changes, patterns etc and can be accessed anywhere making it easier for family members who live at distance from their loved ones.
